Catholic Women's Club To Hear Nurse Monday

Rev. Sr. Mary Damien of the Order of the Holy Cross, a trained nurse who has served for 20 years in Pakistan as director of a health center that handled 20,000 patients in one year, will be guest speaker at the annual communion supper of the Catholic Women's Club of Agawam to be held Monday night, Nov. 7, in the parish hall following mass in the church. Rev. Walter Joyce, administrator of the parish, will be celebrant. The November business meeting and program will follow.

Sr. Mary Damien, originally of Nashua, N. H., is one of 13 children. She has a brother, Rev. Leonard Boucher, O.M.I., who is also a missionary with service in Haiti. Sr. Damien received her nurse's training at Notre Dame Hospital, Manchester, N. H., and did obstetrics at Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, Canada. She specialized in midwifery at the College of Midwifery, Santa Fe, N. M., and did post graduate laboratory work in Albuquerque.

For 20 years Sr. Damien has worked as a missionary in Pakistan and has directed a health center whose staff was comprised of six nurses, two midwives and one male nurse. The nearest doctor was 45 miles away and in one year the center handled 22,000 patients. Established in 1932 the building of the center was twice destroyed, once by typhoon and once by flood. The one-story brick building which now houses the center was built with funds from UNICEF and a Catholic Relief Society. Staffers at the center carry on dispensary hospital and maternity work, some laboratory tests, minor surgery and the training of nurses and midwives. The focal point of the service is the betterment of health conditions in the villages through hy-

Do Paper Clips Wear Out?

Washington
 Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien thinks postal employees aren't getting enough use out of each paper clip.

"Fifty million paper clips were issued in the 12-month period (last year) and a large percentage of those probably were discarded too soon," he said.

Mr. O'Brien also appealed for longer use of each lead pencil in his weekly bulletin to the nation's postal workers. "Three million lead pencils were issued last year and undoubtedly many were thrown away in usable condition," he said.

Revaulting Idea

Pittsburgh
 A Pittsburgh bus driver pulled up to a stop during an evening rush hour, opened the door and told the oncoming passenger:

"You can't get on here with that."

"I've done it before," came the reply from the passenger, a young boy who climbed aboard and gingerly threaded his vaulting pole down the crowded aisle.

Kerr Democratic Candidate For State Representative

Walter T. Kerr has issued the following statement concerning his candidacy for State Representative in the 11th Hampden District.

"I have served 12 years as a Selectman in the Town of Agawam, four years as Board Chairman, and 10 years as a Town Meeting Member. With this experience and background, I am qualified for the Office of State Representative in the 11th Hampden District."

In his term of office as a Selectman in Agawam, he had much experience with the State and Federal Government. During this time Agawam was able to obtain 50% in Federal aid of the monies needed to remove all its sewerage flow from the Westfield and Connecticut Rivers—this total cost was three million dollars. During this term Agawam also saw a National Guard Armory built at no cost to the town; all State and Federal funds were used. There were a number of other projects that received State aid, such as Chapter 90 road construction. Also, during his service to Agawam, a Department of Public Works was established to combine several operations, and thus eliminate much duplication. The Agawam Fire Department was put on a full time basis, and a reduction in fire insurance rates resulted.

Mr. Kerr, if elected, will be a full time Representative of all the people in the 11th Hampden District and keep in close contact with all towns in the District. He has stated he will attend all the Annual and Special Town Meetings of all towns in the District as a very good way a State Representative can become aware of the problems of other towns on such items as schools, highways, and general government.

Mr. Kerr is a life-long resident of the Town of Agawam, 48 years of age, husband of the late Dorothy Feeney Kerr and has one daughter. He has been employed at the American Bosch Corporation as a Laboratory Development Engineer for the past 22 years. During the past 15 years, he has held the office of Grievance and Negotiating Committee Member with AFL Technical Engineers Union 112.

Polling Booth Holds Remedy

All kinds of schemes are advanced by high governmental officials, as well as congressmen, for putting the lid on inflation. It is interesting to note that so far as is incredible, few of the schemes suggest curbing excessive spending of the taxpayers' dollars—spending that embraces countless welfare programs and is aimed primarily at getting votes.

One congressman recently observed, "I think they (economic advisors) are now convinced that inflation cannot be checked with monetary policies and must be done through restrictions on installment buying and by curbing corporation expansions." So now we have another proposal. Typically, it would restrict the activities of private citizens and apparently limit the ability of corporations to expand and increase production of goods and services to keep abreast of the ever-growing demands of these tax spenders for more revenue.

Until the people realize that there are too many "good-time Charlies" holding public office, and start to retire them via the polling booth, there will continue to be inflation, and the prices of everything we wear and eat will continue to rise.

for human use, articles of clothing, prescription medicines, agricultural machinery and certain publications. The statute contains specific provisions relating to the registration of vendors, the filing of returns and the payment of the amounts collected by such vendors.
Vendors may apply to the State Tax Commission for abatements of the amounts owed where they believe such amounts to be excessive, and decisions of the Commission on such applications may be reviewed by the Appellate Tax Board. The Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation shall have the usual powers and remedies provided for tax collection for the collection of the taxes imposed by this section. The State Tax Commission shall issue regulations necessary for proper administration.

The Act further imposes a temporary excise upon the storage, use or other consumption in Massachusetts of tangible personal property at the rate of three per cent of the sales price of such property. Sales upon which the retail sales tax described above has been imposed, or which are exempt from the retail sales tax, shall be exempt from the use tax.
Sales upon which a tax has been paid in another jurisdiction shall also be exempt. Assessment, abatement and collection of the use tax shall be governed by the provisions which relate to the tax upon retail sales. The tax upon retail sales and the excise upon storage, use or other consumption shall be effective during the period from April 1, 1966 to December 31, 1967.

Each qualified taxpayer shall be entitled to a credit of four dollars for himself, four dollars for his spouse and eight dollars for each qualified dependent, but such credit shall not be allowed if the taxable income of such individual and his spouse exceeds five thouettes; a room occupancy excise upon rent paid for the use of hotel rooms and other lodging places; and excises upon sales of certain alcoholic beverages.

The Act creates the Local Aid Fund for the purpose of providing educational assistance, and authorizes the periodic distribution

Act contains a variety of provi-

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

The Agawam Sportsmen Club is really knocking down all barriers when it comes to having participation in the turkey shoots that are held every Sunday. The number of shooters that competed for turkeys was an amazing 400. The club must give credit to the committee consisting of Bill Trumbull, chairman, Ed Walton, Richard Adelman, Richard Schuhlen, Oscar Menard, John Tavelasyk, Jack Hoadley, Jess Natale, Bob McCann, Bob Simpson, Chick Basile, Frank Mag-nani, Jack Springer, and Ed Kel-novick.

Lucky shooters to take home turkeys in the 12 shoots held were: Bob Bauroe, Dave Tour-ville, James Hapin, Frank Mag-nani, John Ciano, Pete McGrady, Ed Reid, Ed Walton, Mike Ba-sile, (2 birds) and Al Johnson.

The club furnished free re-freshments and will continue to do so every Sunday the shoots are held. The first shoot gets un-derway at 1 p.m.

Commissioner Ed Kehoe of the Vermont Fish and Game Depart-ment sends down word that as of Oct. 28, 666 deer had been taken by bowmen in Vermont. This is 140 more deer than last year's count. Just as was predicted in an earlier column here, a new record was broken.

"Dateline Boston" will feature Jack Woolner of the Mass. Divi-sion of Fisheries and Game at 12 noon, Nov. 6 on Channel 5, Boston. The show will feature re-ports on the Vermont archery season, upland and waterfowl hunting in the Bay State, and film of the largest codfish ever taken on hook and line. The fish, taken in Bay State waters, re-turns the world's record to Mas-sachusetts.

THE OLD SLEIGHT OF HAND

The familiar magician's slogan of "now you see it, now you don't" can be equally effective fooling fish in a similar, though less subtle, way.

Anglers who fail to mix their "tricks" usually end up with an unresponsive underwater audi-ence, note the fishing experts at Mercury outboards. This is par-ticularly true at this season when fish are unpredictable in their location and appetites . . . at any hour of any day.

To prospect successfully these days, it's necessary to use the whole bag of tricks in order to discover the right combination that clicks at that particular minute.

Anyone who continues to cast the same lure hour after hour seldom gets much more than ex-ercise, unless it's that rare oc-casion when anything works.

Fall tactics are usually best when based on a methodical ap-proach which consists of changing lures, baits and fishing holes when any given attack proves unproduc-tive.

Each man should mentally pre-pare a systematic attack before starting off for a day of fishing during autumn. He should con-dition himself to the wisdom of mixing his tricks; to the fact that fish are stirring about in re-sponse to fluctuating tempera-tures and are food conscious in an unsatiable, yet unpredictable way.

He should be ready to give each type of lure a try in each location — topwater, medium-running and bottom-scratching. He should change actions and styles in each category, as well as colors and patterns and be willing to prospect the points as well as the favored coves. And, when all else fails, fall back on that old reliable, trolling . . . with, perhaps, a heavier hand on the throttle.

Give 'em everything in the tackle box, urge the Mercury lads. You won't bore your audience, and you're certain to strike the right chord.

Inter-Church Baseball League Presents Trophies At Banquet

Over 300 attended the sixth annual Inter-Church Baseball League banquet held at the Rob-inson Park School. Guest speaker was Rev. Joseph O'Neil, associate editor of the Catholic Observer and former assistant at St. John the Evangelist Church.

The banquet was dedicated to the memory of Alan Pilegi and the President's Trophy was pre-sented to his parents. President DeVecchi said, "Alan Pilegi's de-termination, courage and sports-manship were exemplary. The league, his teammates and all who knew him are better for having known him. He has taught the finest of Christian lessons, that of humility."

The league championship and the Round Robin trophies were presented to the Sacred Heart Shamrocks, coached by Mert Wills. The most valuable player award went to Richard Roberts of the St. Theresa Knights.

The most valuable player trophies were presented for each team: George Skowera, Sham-rocks; Paul Baldiga, St. John Angels; Alan Pilegi (posthumously), St. Anthony Crusaders; Barry Cleary, St. John Leprechauns; Richard Roberts, St. Theresa Knights; Rocco Stellato, Sacred Heart Saints. The sportsmanlike team trophy was presented to the Knights for the fourth consecu-tive year.

Trophies were presented to the most improved player on each team: William Vinessit, Crusa-ders; Roger Hale, Saints; Nich-olas Madamas, Shamrocks; Den-nis Gaffey, Angels; Robert Pi-quette, Knights and Wyly Brame, Leprechauns.

President James Devecchi and the governing board of the league announce the annual scholarship of $100 to be awarded graduates of the Inter-Church Baseball League who are to continue their education upon graduation from high school.

Past President George Sheard assisted in co-ordinating the ban-quet in the absence of Rev. Dom-inic Ruscetta, who is confined at the hospital.

PROMENADERS

SQUARE DANCE

By June and Elmer Roosa

Our dances are getting better and better, folks! Just come down (or up) to Robinson Park School on Friday evening (Nov. 4th) at 8 p.m. and see for yourselves. Some of our more reluctant and busy housewife-square dancers should put down the mop and pick up the "body" (in the chair with the newspaper over his face) and come dance to a real "lively one."

BILL COMO will be calling for the Promenaders on Friday evening and we can promise you, you won't want to stay away so long next time once you've loosened the old joints and got that circulation back to normal again. Remember how easy it was to keep that waistline in place when you danced regularly?

Refreshments (yum), all your old friends and Bill Como will be waiting at the school on Friday to greet you with "Come on in and fill up a set," so get on down (or up) to see the Promenaders this Friday.

See you there.

Curran-Jones Honored By National Morticians

Curran-Jones Funeral Home, 109 Main St., West Springfield, recently accepted an invitation to membership in the National Selected Morticians, Inc., and international association of leading funeral homes and mortuaries.

Membership in the association is by invitation only, W. L. Bustard, Executive Secretary of NSM, said yesterday. Affiliation with this organization is considered an honor because of the high standards that are required. Invitation to membership is extended only after a thorough investigation of facilities, standards of service, and reputation has been made.

The essential purposes of the National Selected Morticians were explained by Richard J. Curran, president of the Curran-Jones Funeral Home. As a fact-finding and research organization, continuous efforts are made by the association to raise the standards of funeral service and develop improved techniques for serving the Public.

Organized in 1917

Headquarters for the group is in Evanston, Ill., and member mortuaries are located in key cities throughout the United States and Canada. The group also elected members in New Zealand, England, Ireland, Wales, Sweden, Scotland, Mexico, Australia and Ceylon.

Among other services, the association provides architectural, tax and management counsel. It has an extensive library service, Curran said, and conducts continuous surveys of an educational nature among its members.

Curran also explained that a member may be expelled from the organization at any time if its standards drop below the rigid requirements.

Requirements for membership in NSM stipulate that each affiliate must have a completely equipped, modern establishment, and a sound credit rating. The characters and reputation of the management of every member firm must be outstanding, and a high standard of professional ability is mandatory.

The Curran-Jones organization was congratulated by J. T. Morriss, IV, of Petersburg, Va., president of the National Selected Morticians, who said, "I am privileged to welcome the Curran-Jones Funeral Home into NSM, with every assurance that this reliable firm will continue to serve the people of greater Springfield in complete accord with the Code of Ethics and Code of Good Practice of our association."

Total assets on Sept. 30 were a record $161,748,337, an increase of $26,597,894 over the Sept. 30, 1965, total of $135,150,443.

Third National Bank is having a very satisfactory year," Mr.

Neff said. "We are continuing to give attention to growth, and in this regard our two most significant recent actions have been the introduction of a new Charge Account Plan, which is receiving excellent reception, and the approval of our application for a branch office—our 14th—in the growing town of Hampden."

Total deposits on Sept. 30 were $140,377,757, representing a gain of $23,840,075 over the $116,537,682 on Sept. 30, 1965.

A MOST IMPORTANT ITEM

THE ABSENTEE VOTE

Absentee votes can and do make the difference in many elections. In 1940 the Governor of Kansas won reelection, with the absentee ballots giving him the margin of victory.

In 1960 Richard Nixon carried the State of California by the margin of the absentee vote.

Today there are over a million Americans outside the continental limits of the United States. Many of them are of voting age, and only temporarily out of the country—in the military service, on assignments from their employers, or just traveling for pleasure.

One out of five Americans change his domicile every year. Many of these people not yet qualified to vote in their new location may still vote by absentee ballot where they used to live by virtue of property ownership or other legal consideration.

Now is the time to determine in all states (except Rhode Island, where it's already too late) whether you and other members of your family may need to cast an absentee ballot. If you're going to be away at voting time, make arrangements at city hall to obtain the forms to fill out to get the necessary absentee ballots to assure a 100% voting record in each family.

At a meeting last evening of the Agawam Lions Club, a lecture by Paul Monson on "Volcanic Guatemala" was immensely enjoyed by the members, as were all his previous journeyings in the past.

A report on the LIGHT BULB SALE was submitted by Lion John Peterson, that co-operation shown by townspeople was very good on streets that were canvassed. The project will be continued until all sections of the town are visited.

The bag of five lamps is selling for $1.00, and the proceeds will be allocated in part to Mass. Lions Eye Research and Western Mass. Lions Orthoptic Clinic. Two very commendable subjects and entirely different from the Sight Seal Campaign which is used solely in Agawam.

Next regular meeting will be Nov. 16.

The PTA will sponsor a Food Sale in the cafeteria of the school during the hours of voting on Election Day, Nov. 8. All members are urged to participate in this project.

Let Our Classified Columns

South School PTA Open House Nov. 9

The South Street Parent Teacher Association will hold Open House and have a report from the Agawam Health Study Committee on Wednesday the 9th at 7:45 in the school cafeteria.

Open House will be held with the teachers in their rooms to discuss your child's progress. Come visit your child's classroom, see the work on display and consult with the teacher as to their progress.

A report will be given by Walter Balboni, chairman of the Agawam Health Study Committee. Following this report the parents will have an opportunity to discuss the program that is being considered for our school system. Members from this committee are: Rev. Benjamin T. Lockhart, Rev. George Linse; James Clark, Supt. of Schools; Robert Carlson, Health Agent; Miss Mary O'Brien, Head School Nurse; Dr. Eber Wein, School Doctor; Mrs. John Janik and Mrs. Domenic DiDonato, PTA Council Representatives. Portion of this committee will be on hand to discuss any phase of program being contemplated for the school system.

Candy will be on sale at this time with all the proceeds at this meeting going to the Benjamin Phelps Scholarship Fund.

Refreshments will be served by the third grade mothers.

Have you joined your PTA this year? If not, Mrs. Julian Miodowski, Membership Chairman, will gladly sign you up. Let's make it 100%.

A Season To Enjoy

Throughout the United States, fall is one of the most pleasant times of the year. It is the time of Indian Summer—a period of calm before the coming of winter. Fall is also the time of red hats and hunters. Thanks to state game laws, and the conservation efforts of many agencies, from the federal level down to the individual wood lot owner, there is plenty of game, and millions of acres of forests, plains, and mountains for hunters to roam.

The game and the beauty of the countryside will be with us in perpetuity, if hunters and recreationists will be content to enjoy, but not abuse the natural assets placed at their disposal. Courtesy, common sense, care and willingness to abide by the rules—don't be a game hog or a careless camper—will insure good hunting and a pleasant time for all.

Consumer Protection Program Needed

In a statement on high food prices and the protection of consumer rights, Lt. Governor Elliot Richardson said today:

"Recent housewives' boycotts of food stores are a clear indication of the urgent need for the consumer protection program I announced last August 15.

"At that time I pledged to establish a Division of Consumer Protection within the attorney general's office, which would be the strong legal arm of the Massachusetts Consumers Council, and to consolidate the functions of the Anti-Trust Division within the same office.

"In addition, my program includes vigorous enforcement of the new Retail Installment Sales Act, which requires full disclosure of carrying charges on virtually all retail credit sales in Massachusetts; an uncompromising effort to insure strict enforcement of the Truth-in-Lending bill; Truth-in-Packaging legislation to give housewives a fair chance to inspect the food they are asked to buy; and legislation to give the attorney general the power to seek a preliminary injunction against "bait" advertising.

"The plight of the housewife who must feed her family has steadily worsened in the months since I announced my program. As attorney general I will consider it my duty to probe for any evidence of conspiracy to maintain high food price levels and exercise to the fullest extent the anti-trust laws we now have.

"In addition, I will call a Conference on Consumer Problems, calling together representatives of all law enforcement agencies, consumer groups, retailers and manufacturers, to outline a total governmental program of consumer protection.

"The attorney general has primary responsibility for protecting the rights of the people of Massachusetts in the market place. To the extent possible he must protect the housewife's dollar—and I believe that a great deal can be done on the state level. But he must also put an end to the subtle and constant threats of small-time vultures in home improvement swindles, schemes to defraud the elderly and gyp the housewife, health quackery, hidden installment charges and vicious loan shark operations."

Yea, Monument?

Pittsburgh Trustees of Allegheny County's new community college, debating a name for the school, rejected a suggestion that it be called "Monument Hill," after a Pittsburgh landmark.

The rejection came after one trustee commented:

"The major problem is how difficult it will be for some cheerleader to holler, 'Yea, Monument Hill! Yea, Monument Hill!'"

LEGION AUXILIARY UNIT NEWS

by Gladys R. Catchepaugh

Conference Theme — "Ring Every Bell For Membership"

In the Georgian Room at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Boston, the annual ball conference of the American Legion Auxiliary Units of the Department of Massachusetts will meet. The new president of Wilson-Thompson Unit must be at GAR Hall at 6:30 on Saturday morning, Nov. 5th, ready to board the bus with her delegates, Jane Whalen, Wilma Gillan and Peg Brown, to be ready for the opening of the conference at 9:15 a.m. All this before the newly installed President, Mrs. Virginia Catchepaugh has even conducted her first Unit meeting!

Membership is being stressed, and we are happy that she will report more than 50% of Unit 185's members already re-enrolled for 1967.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Julia Moore, Christmas Gift Shop Chairman, a record of more than 100% quota of gifts are ready for transport to Leeds Hospital.

Mrs. Adah Blood reported an increase of coupons received and sent to the department chairman before the closing date of Oct. 15th. Though we had an increase, it came in the early part of the year and lagged during the summer and fall months. This is a worthwhile project, since it provides scholarships throughout the State. Let's not forget to save and turn in our coupons. A new list will soon be provided of wanted coupons.

VD Ceremonies

Veterans' Day ceremonies will be sponsored by the VFW of Western Massachusetts and the Veterans Administration Hospital, Friday, Nov. 11th. A parade will start at 2 p.m. at the VFW Home at Florence Center and will conclude with formal ceremonies at 3 p.m. at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Northampton. All are cordially invited to attend.

Days to Remember

Nov. 13th—Birthday for Gertrude Sperry; Nov. 22nd—Wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Abbey.

Veterans' Day

The rights and privileges we so frequently take for granted in the United States had to be won and preserved for us by the selfless devotion of fellow Americans. The American Legion asks you to display your Flag on Veterans Day, Nov. 11th, as a memorial to the heroic men and women of our armed forces who gave their lives for our country.

Wing Graduates

At Great Lakes

GREAT LAKES, Ill. (FHT-NC)—Seaman Recruit Glenn B. Wing, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton E. Wing of 74 So. Alhambra Circle, Agawam, has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first trip or at his first shore station.

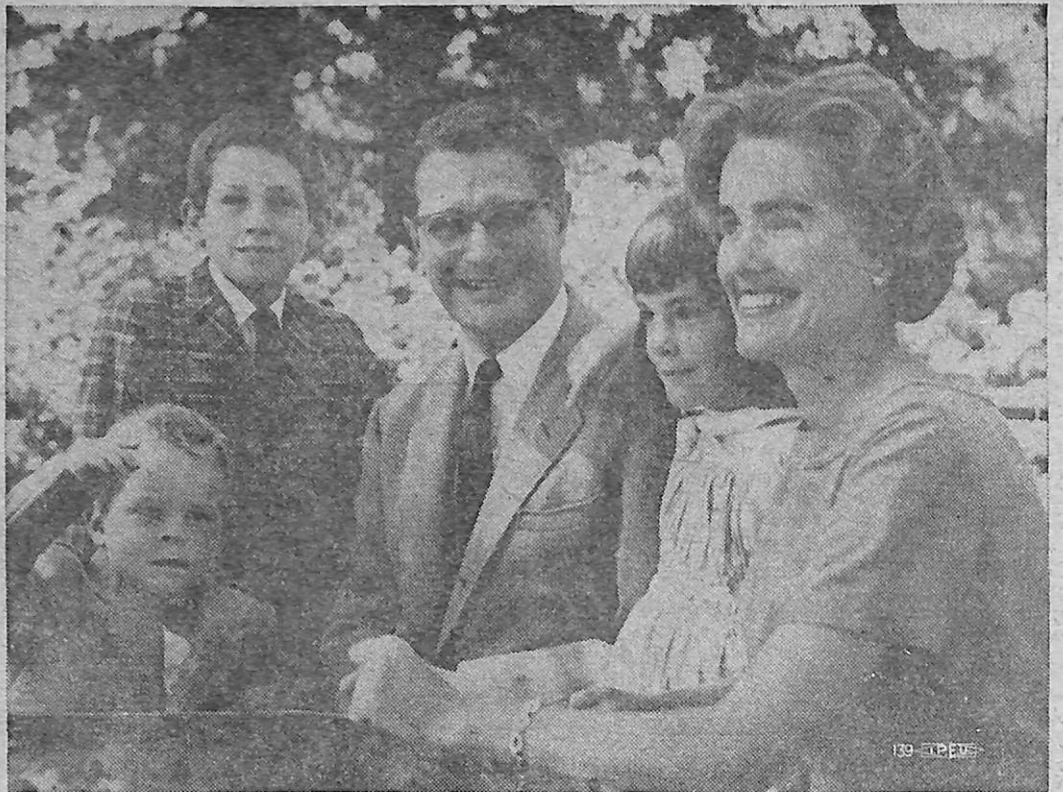

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

Daigneau Training At Great Lakes

GREAT LAKES, Ill. (FHTNC)—Fireman Robert E. Daigneau, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Daigneau of 325 Springfield St., Agawam, has begun the basic Interior Communications Electrician School at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. As he progresses through the 17-week course, he will learn the values of resistance, capacitance, inductance, current and voltage in AC and DC circuits, and the use of electrician's hand tools and electrical testing equipment.

After graduation, he will be expected to set up, maintain and repair public address systems, and test and repair such units as sound-powered telephone circuits, gyrocompasses and related equipment.

At Your Service

DAVID C. GALLANO
Director of Veterans Services

Hundreds of the 196,000 Massachusetts veterans carrying GI insurance are neglecting to keep up to date their listing of a beneficiary for their policy proceeds.

Because of this the insurance proceeds may not be paid to the individual nor in the manner the veteran would wish.

A divorced wife or wealthy parent may take precedence over a present wife or children since the VA must pay the proceeds of the insurance policy to the beneficiary designated by the veteran himself.

A recent sampling in which a group of veterans were asked if they wished to change the beneficiary brought six out of ten affirmative replies.

Necessary forms for these changes may be obtained from the Veterans Administration Contact Division, John F. Kennedy Federal Building, Room E116 Boston or by writing directly to the VA insurance office where the veteran pays his premiums.
